CLERK: Mr. President, I move we adjourn. Signed J. W. Burbach.

SPEAKER: All right. Recognize Senator Burbach.

SENATOR BURBACH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I have a lot different tune to sing this evening than I have the last several nights. This was a very, very hard and dedicated working group even though we were handicapped with numbers. We advanced a lot of bills and we done it in a very orderly fashion and I wish to thank all the members that were here this afternoon for their participation in moving along as we need to do in the next three days. I move we adjourn.

CLERK: Mr. President, the adjournment is to 9:30 a.m., Monday.

SPEAKER: Before we adjourn, two things. First of all, I am going to apologize for the one move that I made on 404 but I would like you to recognize right now if I hadn't of done it we would still be on 404 on the amendment. So I went ahead and transgressed the Rules. Now, I recognize Senator Kelly.
